

Whitehorse March 30, 2015

Written submission about Bill S-6 amendments:

Those opposed by First Nations in effect undermine the very essence of democratic structure. As the separation of judicative, legislative and executive is essential. The bridging of those by a Minister being able to delegate and guide the Yesab; or any circumnavigation of First Nations Governments say is undemocratic and as such destructive to the very foundation of the Canadian democracy

It should not be able to pass

Lugabritt Scholven