physical infrastructure, new technologies, research and development, better access to post-secondary education, making it easier for immigrants to use their skills and increasing the number of skilled workers in Canada; and the government must avoid making mistakes such as breaking its promise not to tax income trusts, eliminating interest deductibility and proposing to end prudence from the federal budgeting process.

Pursuant to Order made Monday, October 29, 2007, the House proceeded to the taking of the deferred recorded division on the motion of Mrs. Barbot (Papineau), seconded by Mr. Crête (Montmagny—L'Islet—Kamouraska—Rivière-du-Loup), — That, in the opinion of the House, given that the Prime Minister has promised to eliminate the fiscal imbalance and that this imbalance cannot be eliminated without the elimination of the federal spending power in areas that fall under the jurisdiction of Quebec and the provinces, the bill on federal spending power that the government will introduce should, at a minimum, provide for Quebec to have the right to opt out with no strings attached and with full financial compensation from any federal program, whether existing or not and cost-shared or not, which invades Quebec's areas of jurisdiction.

The question was put on the motion and it was negated on the following division:

Conformément à l'ordre adopté le lundi 29 octobre 2007, la Chambre procède au vote par appel nominal différé sur la motion de M<sup>me</sup> Barbot (Papineau), appuyée par M. Crête (Montmagny—L'Islet—Kamouraska—Rivière-du-Loup), — Que, de l'avis de la Chambre, puisque le premier ministre s'est engagé à éliminer le déséquilibre fiscal et qu'une telle élimination ne peut se faire sans l'élimination du pouvoir fédéral de dépenser dans les champs de compétence du Québec et des provinces, le projet de loi que le gouvernement présentera sur le pouvoir fédéral de dépenser devra minimalement prévoir pour le Québec un droit de retrait sans condition et avec pleine compensation financière pour tout programme fédéral, existant ou non, cofinancé ou non, qui empiète dans les champs de compétence du Québec.
